

WA Police Force made a thrilling splash at Hillary’s Boat Harbour for the LETR WA Polar Plunge, celebrating the Special Olympics and championing inclusivity in a spectacular fashion!

It was the perfect day to take an icy dip for a good cause.

WA Police Force has received multiple messages from the athletes and families regarding the day of inclusion with the officers representing the WA Police Force.

The fundraising event started by LETR WA has evolved into the first National Polar Plunge this year, with even our neighbours in New Zealand joining in on the fun.

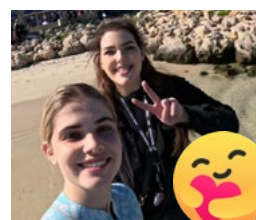

The three WA Plunges in 2024 have raised a record-breaking total of $72,514 with donations still coming in.

- PERTH $62,065
- ALBANY $9,427 Organised by Constable Lizzy Alderson
- GERALDTON $1,002 Organised by Brie-Anne Mayger - WA Police Rangers Leader

The Polar Plunge Oceania total for 2024 has reached over $270,000 which is an incredible achievement to support people with intellectual disabilities and autism.

Thanks to all the teams! There is an Oceania Polar Plunge competition for the best photos from the day, so please send through your best pics of the day here.

$72,514k

A special shoutout to Police Media and Content’s Digital Content Producers, Mya Grieve and Sam Harris, who fully embraced the spirit of the event by plunging into the water to capture the day’s best moments.
